

Sasha just answered his call and promised to meet Travis tomorrow.

So tomorrow, they will be able to know Haze's clues.

Avery told Hayden the news: [Sasha is still in Bridgedale! Travis will meet her tomorrow. Tomorrow, as long as you follow Travis, you can find Sasha!]

Hayden replied: [Mom, I know what to do. You rest early, it's already late.]

Avery: [You send someone to follow, don't participate in it yourself.]

Hayden: [I know.]

Avery glanced at the time, it was almost 1:00 a.m. But she didn't sleep at all.

Beside her, Elliot turned over.

She immediately held her breath for fear of waking him.

Afraid of what was coming, his voice suddenly sounded in his ears: "Avery, are you still asleep?"

"I don't seem to be moving!" Avery asked in confusion, "How do you know I haven't slept?"

Under the quilt, Elliot's big palm stretched out and naturally wrapped around her waist: "Your body is very stiff. If you fall asleep, it won't be like this."

"Uh... When did you wake up?" Avery turned over and faced him, "Shouldn't you wake up when I got out of bed?"

"Well." Elliot said honestly, "Avery, when you got out of bed, I thought you were going to the bathroom, but you went straight out. "

“Why didn’t you talk to me after you’ve been awake for so long?” Avery blushed embarrassedly, “You’ve been pretending to be asleep, and I didn’t realize you were pretending.”

Elliot laughed dumbly: “I’m afraid you won’t feel comfortable knowing that I’m awake. I want to see when you go to sleep. But you haven’t slept.” Having said that, he asked, “Who did you send a message to? Did something happen?”

Avery reached out and hugged his body, buried her face in his neck, and whispered, “Travis is going to meet Sasha tomorrow. Travis said that Sasha knew about Haze’s whereabouts.”

“He threatened you again, is it?” Elliot felt that this matter was extraordinary, so he raised his hand and turned on the headlights in the room, “Avery, Sasha has appeared, we can’t do nothing.”

Avery saw him sitting up and felt that Elliot was going to fly to Bridgedale in seconds.

“Elliot, I’ve already told Hayden. Hayden will send someone to follow Travis.” Avery also sat up and said, “Travis didn’t threaten me. He said he didn’t want to fight against us any more. He wanted to devote all his energy to his new project. He just told me to leave the March Medical Award alone. Because his new project depended on the honor of Margaret March Medical Prize to make money.”

“This is also considered a threat.” Elliot frowned, “Travis wanted to make a fortune from this, he didn’t even think about it!”

“Elliot, don’t be angry yet. His new project has just been approved, and he still doesn’t know what product he is going to make. It is impossible for him to realize success in at least half a year. Tomorrow, we will see if the people sent by Hayden can find an opportunity to rob Sasha from Travis.” Avery has made up her mind and will accompany Elliot to recuperate at home.

It was also impossible for Avery to let Elliot go to Bridgedale.

“Well. I believe in Hayden.” Elliot’s frowning brows suddenly relaxed, “Let’s see what happens tomorrow!”

Avery breathed a sigh of relief: “I thought you would immediately fly to Bridgedale, or send someone you trust to watch Travis.”

“You reminded me.” Elliot picked up his mobile phone from the bedside table, looking for someone to help.

Avery: “Elliot, don’t worry about it. Hayden can find a professional person to do this. Because he is very willing to spend money.”

Hearing that, Elliot stopped his movements.

“Dream Makers Group was created by Hayden and Mike.” Avery continued, “I only paid the money and didn’t take care of other things. This is enough to prove Hayden’s ability. I believe he will not let Travis’s trick is successful.”

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2255

“Every time you tell me about this, I find it incredible.” Elliot put down the phone and looked at her, “Billy’s image should be what you mean, right?”

Avery shook her head: “No. Hayden Relatively low-key, I don’t want everyone to pay attention to him.

So I made Billy the robot. To be precise, Billy is the work of his teacher.

Billy’s image is designed by him according to my father’s image.”

Elliot's nose slightly pantothenic acid.

Hayden had never seen Jack Tate but he fulfilled Jack Tate's wish.

Hayden's heart must be very soft. If Jack Tate knew about it, he would be very happy.

"Elliot, what are you thinking?" Avery saw that he didn't speak, so she leaned in front of him and looked at him tenderly, "Aren't you jealous? He has only seen pictures of his grandfather, I think he did this because he was more interested in the driverless system and wanted to fulfill my dad's wish."

"I'm not jealous. I just feel that I am inferior to my son in terms of ability and emotion."

Elliot was a little skeptical Own.

"He's your own son, he's so good, you should be happy, not compared to him."

Avery couldn't help laughing, "Layla is also very good.

I can't compare her stage performance and talent.

But I won't compare with Layla."

"I'm reflecting on myself." Elliot explained.

"It's a big night, don't think about it. Go to sleep!" Avery's sleepy eyes couldn't open,

"If you really can't sleep, play with your phone for a while!"

"Okay, go to sleep!" Elliot had already slept for a while, but didn't feel sleepy at all.

Turning off the light, Avery turned her back to sleep.

Elliot took his mobile phone, opened the address book, and found a friend in Bridgedale.

He originally wanted this friend to help send someone to stare at Travis, but he said hello to this friend.

After the other party replied in seconds, he forgot what he was going to say.

He sent a message back to his friend: [How is the development of the Dream Maker Group in your Bridgedale?]

Friend: [This question...you asked me right! Is it convenient for you to talk on the phone now? Let's talk on the phone!]

Elliot: [My wife is sleeping and I can only type.]

Friend: [oh oh oh! All right! your wife? Do you mean Avery?]

Elliot: [Well, we got the certificate.]

Friend: [Do you still have a wedding? The last time I attended your wedding, I didn't have a good time.]

Elliot: [It should not be done. She didn't say she was going to have a wedding.]

Friend: [She didn't say it, you can say it! What if she wanted to do it too?]

Elliot: [After a few years with her children, we will all be of marriage age. I don't think she wants to have a wedding anymore.]

Friend: [Hahahaha! If you don't tell me, I forgot that your child is very big.]

Elliot: [How about the Dream Makers Group?]

Friend: [This company has attracted the attention of senior officials in Bridgedale.]

The day before yesterday, several high-level executives visited the Dream Makers Group.

As far as I know, this inspection has brought a lot of benefits to the Dream Makers Group.

There are tax reductions and exemptions, as well as key support funds...]

Elliot: [😊😊😊]

Friend: [I have a question I have never dared to ask you.

I heard that the behind-the-scenes boss of this company is your wife, isn't it?]

Elliot: [To be precise, the boss is my son.]
